Local Funds Being Raised To Fight Polio

Dr. Robert P. Jarrett, chairman of the Randall County Polio Foundation, Joe Gibson, emergency campaign director, and George L. Blackwell attended a luncheon meeting at the Herring Hotel Friday. The whole meeting was devoted to the financial problems facing the Polio Foundation. C. T. Davis of Amarillo was in charge of the meeting.

Jim Edington, director of fund raising from New York City, was the main speaker. The following points were brought out in his speech.

Eighty-five cents of every dollar given goes directly for polio benefits.

On the 23rd day of July there were 187 more polio cases than last year at that time.

It was learned that one shot of gamma globulin costs the Polio Foundation $9.50 and the Foundation has paid for 9 million dollars of gamma globulin. They have sent out 11 million dollars worth of gamma globulin.

On this particular emergency drive, the local chapter will receive one-third percent of the funds and the national chapter will receive two-thirds.

The drive will start August 16 and will end August 31. Many people will realize the seriousness of our situation and will want to mail in checks before that time. Those who want to donate before August 16, may mail their checks to Don Standley, treasurer, or the Randall County Polio Director. Donation envelopes will be mailed out before the 16th of August.

The seriousness of this Emergency Drive cannot be over-emphasized and everyone who can is invited to support the Emergency Drive. Mass polio shots were given to 500 children in Canyon Tuesday morning when the gamma globulin was exhausted.

Another shipment of 1000 shots was received last night by air and those who did not receive their shots Tuesday will be started upon this morning.

If any of the shots remain after the children receive their polio inoculations, boys and girls up to 21 years of age may receive the additional shots, according to local doctors who are administering the treatment.

So far the medical profession has not discovered the source of the disease or the remedy.

After his vacation he will direct activities for the Presbyterian camp at Ceta Glen Canyon. Wilbanks said people from about 30 colleges and 12 states were usually in attendance at the camp.

It was the church's camp activities in the summer of 1950 that Rev. Wilbanks first met Miss Simpson. She was leader of one of the two teams that he was visiting. In her work here she divided her time between Sunday School, children and training and was described as being especially good at leading singing at camp.

Lightning hit the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McCarter Monday during the brief storm which hit Canyon late in the afternoon. The building was not set on fire by the flash.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McCarter were in the rear of the home and did not know of the close call until they investigated following the hard clap of thunder.

The light in the front room was burned out; plaster thrown all over the room as a piece several inches square was torn loose. The room had recently been repainted.

The loss was covered by insurance but the extent of damage had not been determined yesterday.

Music Camp Attracts Great Increase In Attendance During Two Weeks

About 290 students and high school band and choral directors completed registration here Monday for the second annual West Texas Music Camp, slated for the next two weeks on the West Texas State College campus. Three bands, averaging 75 members each, have been formed, and a choir of some 75 members was organized Monday morning. Some 110 twirlers, in advanced, intermediate, and beginners' classes, will receive instruction from Ted Otis, five-time national twirling champion. ## Yarborough Followers Hold a Rump Convention After Vote

The Democratic County Convention turned into a considerable brawl Saturday as the South Amarillo delegation started stomping of feet and creating so much commotion that it was difficult for proceeding to be carried on in an orderly manner.

T. H. McDonald, County Chairman, announced that since his delegation from Commissioners Precinct No. 4 was under question that he would not attempt to preside and called upon Clyde W. Warwick, publisher of The Canyon News, to become temporary chairman. Pollyanna Hughes was named temporary secretary.

Warwick explained the purpose of the meeting, and called the roll of delegates present from the various precincts. Precinct conventions had been held only in Nos. 1, 2, 3, 5 and 9, with delegates being present.

$468,500 Total Permits in July

Building permits for Canyon during the month of July nosed up sharply. Late last week the books at the City Hall showed a total of building almost reaching the half-million dollar mark. The total listed was $468,500 with the cost on another rather large building project not known at this time.

Of the seven permits issued two were for residences and one for an addition to a residence. The permits showed two new dormitories at West Texas State College which accounted for $428,000 of the total building for the month. One of the other permits was for a service station and the other was for an addition to the high school.

CROP Continues Wheat Drive

Truett Hull, chairman of the Christian Rural Overseas Program in Randall County, said last week that the wheat drive would continue through August. Hull said the Randall county goal was one carload of wheat.

Farmers are being solicited to help out in the program by donating wheat. For each bushel of wheat that the farmer gives the government gives 20 bushels. This means that in order to raise one carload of wheat here the farmers only have to contribute one-twentieth of a car.

Wheat donations are going to the underprivileged and hungry people overseas. It is one of the ways in which the people of this country hope to make friends and bring more people overseas out from under the communist yoke. The contribution doesn't necessarily have to be in wheat. You can give money with which the wheat will be purchased.

State To Let Contract For New Underpass

AUSTIN: D. C. Greer, State Highwayway Engineer, at Austin, announces that the project covering the construction of the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Underpass at Canyon on U. S. Highway 87 will soon be ready for receipt of bids and construction.

Greer stated that this project, estimated to cost approximately $300,000, has moved slowly due to the complicated plans involved in crossing this railway. The detailed plans have just been completed by the P & SF Railway Company. Greer stated that it is now planned to receive bids for the project in October, using the customary 30-day period for advertising in order that the contractors may have this period of time to study the plans to permit accurate bidding.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Were They Spanked? We Have Seen the Inside Works at Austin

Publication of the constitutional amendments were denied the Tulia Herald and the Rails Barner. The publishers are hollering their heads off charging that they were spanked by the Shivers Administration simply because they supported Yarborough in the recent election.

This makes good reading for the public, and makes an issue for campaign thunder. It so happens that Governor Shivers has nothing to do with placing the amendments for publication. This is the duty of the Secretary of State, and let it be known that a mere request, either on the part of the publisher of some opposition paper or the request of a member of the legislature, will change the paper to receive the business.

We happen to know simply because while a member of the House we received requests from the Secretary of State to select the papers in our district which was to be the official paper for the year. Unless our request was entirely out of line, the business went as we recommended.

Which brings up another question: That of paying for the amendments. The price is entirely ridiculous and far below commercial rates. As a matter of fact the legal rate for constitutional amendments in Randall county is just one-half of that charged for other legal advertising. Due to the long hours involved in setting the type, reading the proof and making returns on published notices, especially constitutional amendments, there is no profit to be made, regardless of the number of the kind. A lawyer from a neighboring town recently requested that we publish a bunch of legal notices at state rates. We gladly turned down the business, which was likewise turned down by other papers in this area. The lawyer posted the notices of sale because he was unable to get a "cheap" advertising rate.

When Texas refuses to pay an adequate rate for its publications, and when it must rely upon second or third class newspapers for publication of its notices, there is something wrong with the system. No, and the Governor has nothing to do with the system. The blame may be laid at the door of the legislature.

Pledge Is Only Way to Separate Voters in a Two-Party State

"I am a Democrat and pledge myself to support the nominee of this primary."

This pledge is printed at the top of every election ballot in Texas.

Frankly we used to resent this pledge, but that was in the days before such a thing as we had two parties in Texas. Now that we have two parties, it is necessary to have some sort of a pledge, or at least a declaration that the one casting the ballot is a member of the party in which he votes.

A state newspaper said the day following the primary election that a well known business man in Big D had voted in the Democratic primary and then attempted to vote in the Republican primary. He was blocked by the Republicans.

It is charged by the Yarborough followers that great numbers of the Republicans voted for Governor Shivers. That is just another alibi for the failure of the Austin Judge to be elected Saturday. There are not that many Republicans in Texas, but there were plenty of anti-Democrats in Texas in 1952 who were completely disgusted by the way in which President Harry Truman was running affairs in Washington, and the way Governor Stevenson promised to run them if he was elected. Therefore the Democrats voted for General Eisenhower in November, 1952, and no one can blame them for this attitude.

Amendments Should Be Read and Carefully Studied by All Voters

Some folks say that "no one reads the constitutional amendments." They base their opinion upon the small number of votes which are cast in elections upon these amendments.

Therefore, many wonder as to why these amendments are published.

It is a shame that these amendments are really read so infrequently and so little of the amendments are understood. Perhaps the wording of the amendments has something to do with this laxity on the part of the voters.

The time was when all amendments were promptly rejected at the polls by the voters. In recent years practically all amendments have been adopted. We shall see what the people think of the eleven proposals which are made to amend the constitution in the November election.

Read these amendments in this issue of The Canyon News and then vote intelligently when the general election is held. Before that time we shall make an attempt to explain these amendments in a little clearer language. They were written by lawyers, for lawyers, and therein hangs the tale. Too many provisions of the law are not fully understood by the laity.

Smear Campaign Regretted by Voters in the First Primary

During the recent campaign for Governor of Texas, too much mud was thrown by each side. After all, this is what brings out the voters. They dearly love to hear half truths revealed by both parties. When one candidate starts to smear, there is nothing for the opponent to do but follow his example.

The other day we were somewhat amused as a group of men discussed the mud which had been tossed by both sides.

One man was of the opinion that neither candidate was worth much because of the mud which had been tossed during the campaign.

Another one said: "I was mad because I have never been able to make $425,000 on any land trade. We need such smart men in our government."

Another man was of the opinion that a fee of $68,000 for representing the El Paso school district was far beyond the worth of any lawyer.

After all, these sideline smears have little or nothing to do with the worth of either man or his ability to serve Texas.

When you are thinking of reduced fatalities over the recent holiday week-end, remember that an American is being killed every 15 minutes somewhere in the U. S. all through the summer vacation period.

Yes, Sir, We Are For Shivers Because of His Accomplishments

The Canyon News was for the re-election of Governor Allan Shivers on July 24 in the first primary, and will be for him again in the second primary on August 28.

The Governor stood on his record of achievement in the first primary and will again stand on this platform in the second primary.

The fact that he was not elected in the first primary was considerable disappointment to those of us who were confident that he would get 75% of the votes of the Panhandle. When the first returns came in showing that Yarborough was leading in a dozen Panhandle counties, and that the Governor was only a comparatively short distance ahead in other counties, we were convinced that the race was a tougher one than we had contemplated.

The fact that Holmes and Davis picked up more votes than contemplated; and the fact that the Governor had a lead lacking 140 votes of a clear majority places a heavy responsibility upon those who did not take the time to go to the polls on July 24 and cast their ballots.

We are of the opinion that if the people had voted their true sentiment, Shivers would have been re-elected by a landslide. The people of Texas certainly do not want to see the state government run by a hireling of the big labor bosses; or sold out to the federal government.

Go to the polls on August 28.

Election Returns Indicate Need of More Voting Places

The Canyon News has been thanked by many persons for the fine service in posting election returns on the bulletin board in the front window. The fact that the county was not completed during the night was no fault of The News, as one box was missing when we decided to close up shop and call it a night's work at 1:30 a. m. Sunday.

One or two things must happen before another heavy vote is taken: We must have more voting places, or more people to count the returns, if the people expect the county to be completed on election night.

We have been checking the returns of other counties and find that 500 votes have been the maximum in all voting boxes in most counties.

Box No. 1 is the heaviest in Randall county, with approximately 1300 votes cast. Either another counting crew must be added, or the box divided.

Precinct No. 2 had 192 votes, but the territory covered is so great that there is little chance for consolidation.

Precinct 3 had only 82 votes. It seems reasonable that voting boxes 3 and 4 could be consolidated.

Precinct 4 is the heavy box, with 2300 votes cast in two country boxes and two voting boxes in South Amarillo. No. 9 cast 825 votes and No. 10 had 1165 votes in Saturday's primary election.

The law provides that in the February election voting lines may be changed. The members of the Commissioners Court will have the problem in their laps at that time.

50 Years Celebration Staged By the Terry County Herald

The Terry County Herald came out with a Golden Anniversary of the paper last week.

Andrew Jackson (Jack, the Old He) Stricklin is publisher of the newspaper. He celebrated the 50th Anniversary of his paper, which he had bought in 1909. Old Jack is the dean of West Texas publishers, having served the people of Brownfield for more than 46 years.

One of the interesting stories in the edition was a short sketch of the life of the publisher. Born in Tennessee, he was left an orphan in early life, to be cared for by an older brother. In cutting timber, a tree fell on him, leaving Stricklin a cripple for life. He learned the printer's trade in a trade school, but drifted west with another brother who was interested in farming. After he had farmed for two or three years his brother found the little paper in Brownfield, and insisted on his buying the sheet.

Stricklin describes his venture in a graphic manner as he moved houses and printing plants around town; his marriage and rearing of three children.

The edition was a notable one and is on file at The Canyon News office for future reference.

More power to these old-timers who have built this powerful Panhandle country—especially to Jack Stricklin.

Nature Works Hard at Job

A lecturer in Canyon remarked the other morning that she would never complain of hard work.

"Just look how hard nature worked the other night trying to produce two drops of rain."

Judging from the drouth, nature must be spinning her wheels considerably in a futile attempt to bring some rain.

Intelligent editorials should stress both sides of an issue and express an opinion. Editors who always come out fighting with solutions to every problem of the day, every day, often do more misleading than leading.

Whether the United States has reached maturity as a nation will be seen in the next few years—when we will demonstrate to the world whether we learned anything from our isolationism between the world wars.

There were ancient civilizations in this hemisphere and trips to North America long before 1492, despite the notion that the first gleam of intelligence came over with Columbus.

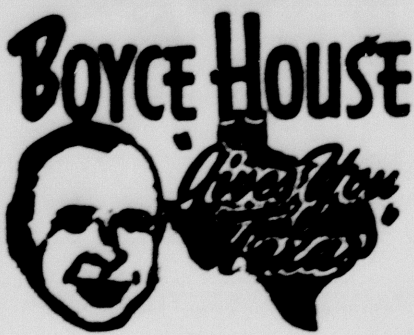

Christian living means obeying your good impulses every day, and not waiting for Sunday services to come around.

Investors usually seek one hundred percent profit and one hundred percent security—a good combination, for the investor.

Summer, it seems, is finally here, and this year's crop of fresh vegetables makes life worthwhile again.

Civil rights were never intended to give anybody the right to force themselves upon other persons.

Why is it that most people get so excited over nothing?

Texas today has some great ranches—many of them measured in hundreds of thousands of acres and tens of thousands of cattle—but in all the history of the cow business—and that means since the world began—there has never been a cattle king like Don Luis Terrazas of Mexico.

Don Luis numbered his acres by the millions, and his cattle by the hundreds of thousands. No one—except, perhaps, General Terrazas himself—ever knew just how many cattle he did own; and it is probable that his own books might have been in error by 10,000 head one way or the other—because it is hard to keep an accurate check on herds when they graze on 28,000 acres.

For that, at one time, was the extent of the Terrazas range—a cattle kingdom which took in virtually all of the Mexican state of Chihuahua, which borders the United States below El Paso and the state of New Mexico. As we have pointed out—it is problematic just how many steers Don Luis did own at any one time, but estimates range as high as 750,000—along with 200,000 sheep and 100,000 horses. Anyhow, in 1910 alone, he branded 200,000 calves.

Terrazas died in 1923 at the age of 94, but long before his death he was a legendary figure in the Southwest and in the north of Mexico.

He first tasted adventure in 1847 as a youthful private in the Mexican volunteers who repulsed the invasion forces of the American filibuster, Colonel Doniphan, and after this short campaign—still in his teens—he turned to the business of cattle raising. In his first ventures, he bought only individual animals and small lots, which he turned at a profit in the retail trade. Then, year by year, he began doubling and redoubling his operations until he ranked among the largest cattle raisers in Chihuahua. Looked upon with favor by the powers in Mexico City, he became, in time, governor of the state, and during the Juarez revolt against the Emperor Maximilian, he was general of the state troops who drove the Maximilian garrison out of Chihuahua City, helping to restore the Mexican Republic.

Don Luis served as general in three different campaigns during those troubled times in Mexico, and later he represented Chihuahua in the Mexican Congress from 1876 to 1880, but despite these interludes into the military and into politics, his heart belonged first to his cattle ranges, which, meantime, had been spreading over more thousands of acres.

In 1877, when his friend, General Porfirio Diaz became the No. 1 man of Mexico, Luis Terrazas became that powerful regime's most important figure in the north, and as governor of the state—a post he held for five terms—he ruled Chihuahua in a fashion as absolute as that of any European monarch. He wasn't, however, in any sense a tyrant; rather, he was a kindly and benevolent ruler with an almost fatherly anxiety for his people.

AUSTIN: The people have spoken! And what a speech they made.

So close was the Governor's race that close followers of the political scene here remained up all night Saturday in hopes of finding out whether there would be a run-off.

Judge Ralph Yarborough was still in the lead at midnight. He left home shortly thereafter for his downtown headquarters in the Littlefield Building. There the elevator jammed. When Yarborough was freed nearly an hour later, Governor Allan Shivers had taken a small lead which he never relinquished.

"(2) Needy blind persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and are over the age of twenty-one (21) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any State supported institution, while such inmate, or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of Texas at a special election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the 2nd day of November, 1954, at which election there shall be printed on such ballot the following clause:

It will be the first Gubernatorial runoff since the Rainey-Jester campaign of 1946.

A runoff also is in order for a place on the Court of Criminal Appeals. Contenders are Judge Lloyd Davidson of Austin and District Judge Alan Haley of Wichita Falls.

A third runoff race is that between Alfred M. Scott of Austin and Justice Few Brewster who seeks re-election to the Supreme Court.

These Breezed Through

Clear winners were Ben Ramsey who defeated C. T. Johnson and George Hinson for lieutenant governor; John Ben Shepherd who defeated Doug Crouch for attorney general, with the biggest majority in any of the races; and Lyndon Johnson who defeated Dudley T. Dougherty for U. S. Senate.

Elected without opposition were Martin Dies, congressman-at-large; John C. White, commissioner of agriculture; Bascom Giles, land commissioner; Jesse James, treasurer; Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commissioner; Robert S. Calvert, comptroller; and J. E. Hickman, chief justice of the supreme court.

Duke In Trouble

Something new happened in Duval County. George Parr's candidates did not win by a landslide.

In fact, some of them didn't even win.

Duval County votes were impounded after being counted, and locked up in the district clerk's vault, by order of District Judge Maxwell Welch.

Drouth Aid

Twenty - three Texas counties, hard hit by one of the state's worst drouths, have been made eligible for relief by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, with help to be forthcoming immediately.

All in the Central and Western parts of Texas, the counties were among 54 to be listed for federal aid. The others were in Colorado and Wyoming.

Texas counties to receive benefits were Bastrop, Bell, Bexar, Blanco, Bosque, Brown, Burnet, Comal, Comanche, Coryell, Erath, Hamilton, Hays, Kendall, Lampasas, Lee, Llano, McCulloch, Mason, Mills, San Saba, Travis and Williamson.

No details as to the nature of the relief program were made public by the Department of Agriculture.

A proposed plan to stop Texas' continuing water problems was explained by Dr. Walter P. Webb of the University of Texas at a conference.

Conservation

Federal water conservation policy backed by President Eisenhower will not support state conservation plans that are "piecemeal," the executive board of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers has been told.

J. S. Hudnall, Texas representative at the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington, said that the President would "look with disfavor" on water projects that do not fit an overall planned program for entire river systems.

Insurance

Under an amended order issued by District Judge J. Harris Gardner in Austin, the Commercial Security Insurance Company of Houston can keep on doing business.

A previous order by Judge Gardner had closed the company, after Attorney General John Ben Shepherd charged that the firm had violated the state insurance laws.

A hearing is due in the case. Shepherd charged that the company borrowed $200,000 of its $250,000 initial capital. The attorney general said that the law requires unencumbered assets.

Natural Gas

Two Texas officials have tabbed the Federal Power Commission order freezing natural gas prices on gas sold to interstate pipelines as "serious" to the state's natural gas industry.

Railroad Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson and Attorney General Shepherd expressed dismay at the mandate, which was considered to be an initial step by the federal government to take over regulation of natural gas traffic.

Shepherd said that the move means "financial ruin for a large segment of the Texas natural gas industry."

Thompson called the ruling a "tragic blow" to the state treasury. Texas levies taxes on natural gas according to market value.

Munday-Cooper Lumber Company Rates High in Area

(Taken from the files of The Canyon News of August 8, 1929)

A community grows and prospers by reason of the public spirited men who take an active part in the development of the area in which they live and do business.

The Panhandle area has its share of these outstanding citizens and deserving special mention is Lowell Munday and E. E. (Tutt) Cooper, who head the Munday-Cooper Lumber Co., which is located at 3417 S. Fillmore in Amarillo.

This popular concern has been serving the builders of this area for many years and enjoys a reputation for fair dealing that has put them in an enviable position among Amarillo business leaders. They carry a large stock of high quality lumber, millwork, roofing, cement, paint, glass and builders hardware.

They feature a repair loan department where the householder or businessman may arrange for additions or change in his building on the FHA plan.

They are always ready to consult with prospective builders and give them any assistance that they can in planning their building—making suggestions that often times saves them money and gives a more efficient building.

We are glad in this business and industrial review in our paper to compliment the Munday-Cooper Lumber Company on the splendid business that they have built up and the good service the concern renders this area and to recommend this outstanding firm to our many readers.

Chehalis, Wash. — A low-flying jet plane frightened Ted Goebel's turkeys into a stampede that killed 529 birds and injured 205 others. These turkeys, being transferred from one field to another when the jet flew over, plunged into a nearby creek and piled up. Some drowned and others smothered. Goebel estimated his loss at $2,500.

Mt. Holly, N. J. — Seven persons, including all six occupants of one of the vehicles, were killed when two cars collided head-on. A third car crashed into the wreckage—a mass of tangled steel—but none of its four occupants was seriously hurt. One of the victims, riding alone in a convertible, had been warned minutes before the accident, to be more careful.

A Tribute To Our Flag!

"Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue." When we sing those stirring words at home, at school, as a parade passes, or whatever the occasion, let's pay more than merely lip service to the Grand Old Flag! Poems have been written for Old Glory. Statesmen have eulogized its immortality. Soldiers on battlefields throughout the world have died for it. It flies majestically night and day over the White House. It is the blessed Flag of Freedom and stands for all the things we hold dearest. Honor the Flag that is the signature of our country and fly it proudly in your heart!

PLEASANTVIEW H. D. CLUB MET WITH MRS. RAY WELCH

On July 28 the Pleasantview Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Ray Welch with the roll call being answered by each member telling "A Driving Blunder I Remember."

Mrs. A. B. Haynes, Jr., reported on the county wide meeting for a unified study for next year's year-book.

Nomination committee was appointed.

Mrs. Hufnagle announced that the recreation committee will meet to plan a community party for August.

The motion to allow ten dollars for the delegate's trip to Dallas was allowed.

Refreshments of banana nut bread, cream salad, Hi-Lo cheese bits and punch were served to Mesdames Clifford and arl Burtz, Tom Moore, Haynes, Bud Keller, C. L. Cranmer, Roy Henderson, Cristler Crain, Hufnagle, J. W. Howell, R. A. Hodges, Joe Carver, and the hostess.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

President Eisenhower, members of Congress discover, is showing much more personal interest in the practical side of politics. There is a growing impression that the President will not find it so hard to be persuaded to be drafted for a second term.

Richard Nixon, Vice President, is described as making so much headway in winning support within the Republican organization of California that he is likely to control the big California delegation to the Republican National Convention in 1956.

Irving Ives, New York Senator, is not giving comfort to New York politicians who expect him to be Republican candidate for Governor if Thomas Dewey retires. Senator Ives prefers the life of a legislator to that of an administrator and is happy and secure in his present job.

Governor Dewey, as of now, is convinced that the 1956 Republican nomination for the Presidency will not be open to him. If this door is closed, Mr. Dewey will be likely to hold to his decision to retire at the end of his present term.

Lyndon Johnson, Texas Senator, is being talked of for second place on the Democratic ticket in 1956, not for first place. The fact that Texas is in the South and has segregation laws on its books operates against Senator Johnson just as it has against Senator Richard Russell, of Georgia.

George Humphrey, Treasury Secretary and the official who exercises most influence at the White House, is going to face a hard fight with the military services over the issue of defense costs. Mr. Humphrey feels that it is imperative to get the Government's budget balanced.

The U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, advising the President on U. S. defenses, is about convinced that it will be necessary to add 5 billion dollars to planned spending on military programs if this country is to carry out commitments already in force. Military officials are deeply concerned over the demonstrated weakness of U. S. allies.

Francisco Franco, the Generalissimo of Spain, is getting more and more attention in U. S. military planning. A good many questions are being raised about security of American bases in French areas of North Africa, with more interest now shown in Spain, where the regime is more stable.

Pierre Mendes-France, Premier of France, will be in search of more gift dollars when he pays his visit to the United States. The French, without a war in Indo-China, will want to get as many dollars as they got in war's last year, when U. S. footed two-thirds or better of the war bill. Inside betting is that Mendes-France will get the dollars he wants.

Mr. Eisenhower, for at least one more year, is to put dependence upon a big supply of dollars that can be given away as a means of holding allies. There is no sign inside the Government that anybody is engaged in an "agonizing reappraisal" of this country's foreign policy.

John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, with his White Paper on the loss of Indo-China, will give the full story, rather than an abridged version. Dean Acheson, former Secretary of State, with his White Paper on the loss of China, was charged with giving a "slanted" version.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur is not being asked by the Administration for advice on U. S. policy in Asia, although the General has had almost a lifetime of experience in that area and gave unheeded advice on Korea that since has been proved to be right.

U. S. strategists, in shaping plans for the future, are tending to place less dependence upon bases overseas and more upon bases in U. S. territory.

Sir Winston Churchill, Konrad Adenauer and Synnman Rhee — three men in power and all friends of U. S. — are close to 80 years of age and with rather positive ideas. President Rhee, visiting Washington, was heard to refer to Sir Winston as "that poor old man who thinks he's fighting the Opium Wars."

The hands of top-ranking White House officials are seen in maneuverings that related to the effort in the Senate to censure Senator Joseph McCarthy. Almost all in the White House official staff are described as unsympathetic to the Senator.

Ho Chi Minh's absence from ceremonies and the lack of recent pictures of him convinces U. S. officials that he may be dead in spite of the fact that public messages of congratulation have been addressed to him by other Communists. Americans wonder why Ho, after a big victory in Indo-China, does not show up in public or at least in new pictures.

Rev. and Mrs. Morris Fisher of Monrovia, Calif., visited in the Rev. L. Hill home over the week-end. Rev. Fisher preached Sunday morning at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. A. M. Cunningham and Mrs. Buel Wharton of Amarillo are visiting Mrs. Cunningham's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wharton, in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Black and children of Dallas are visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Black and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. C. Middleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brasuel and children of Lubbock were Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. Hattie Brasuel.

Mack Gillham and son, Bill, of Odessa were visitors here Monday. Mr. Gillham was a former resident of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis of Shamrock vacationed at Red River and other points in New Mexico last week.

NOT SO ALERT

Wilmington, N. C. — A car, parked in front of the Police station for two days, kept getting overtime tickets and was about to be towed away to the city garage when the desk sergeant looked over his records and found the car had been stolen from Police Chief Paul Wolfe, of nearby Carolina Beach, three days before.

A DEER ON SPREE

Freeport, Ill. — A 120-pound deer, which wandered into town, leaped over autos, crashed through windows and poked his nose into a tavern. It was so badly injured, however, from collisions with buildings and windows, that it had to be destroyed.

A GAS-TLY PREDICAMENT

Aurora, Ill. — It must be embarrassing for the local gas company which can't use gas to heat its new building. According to regulations, gas heat is permitted only for single family homes and the company still has more than 100,000 unfilled applications on its list.

DOG TRAMPS 1,000 MILES

Phoenix, Ariz. — Somewhere en route from here to their new home at Findlay Lake, N. Y., the collie dog, Trixie, belonging to Jimmy Eaton, got separated from the Eatons. Recently, dusty and tired from her 1,000 miles of travel, Trixie limped back to the old Eaton home here.

MACHINE WRONG

Pasadena, Calif. — The parents of Jack Alden, Stanford University student, were somewhat surprised when they received his latest report card. It contained three A's and one C. Jack explained, "I got the C in rugby. Unfortunately, I am not taking Rugby, but you can't argue with a tabulating machine. So I got C in Rugby."

PROBABLY WOULDN'T OBJECT

Wife (to hubby deep in his paper): Ed, I told you you were wrong on that paint question.

He: So?

She: Yes, and you were also way off on the color of that wall paper.

He: Yes?

She: Ed, if you're going to be so unsoberable I'm going to leave you this minute.

Linz, Austria. — A 61-year-old cyclist fell off his bicycle in front of a 20-ton steamroller and was run over. He was killed instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rigsby had as their guests over the week-end, Mr. Rigsby's mother, Mrs. Violet Rigsby, of Waxahachie, and his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rigsby and daughter, Linda Gayle, of Quanah.

Al Vigne of St. Louis, Mo., visited over the week-end with his wife and daughter at Mr. and Mrs. Felix Pierces.

Mrs. Pearl Vickery of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Neelley and son, James, of Olney are visiting Mrs. C. R. Neelley and Claudia this week.

"Section 4. The Legislature may by law authorize the creation of county-wide Hospital Districts in counties having a population in excess of 190,000 and in Galveston County, with power to issue bonds for the purchase, acquisition, construction, maintenance and operation of any county owned hospital, where the hospital system is jointly operated by a county and city within the county, and to provide for the transfer to the county-wide Hospital District of the title to any land, building or equipment, jointly or separately owned, and for the assumption by the district of any outstanding bonded indebtedness, theretofore issued by the county or city for the establishment of hospitals or hospital facilities; to levy a tax not to exceed seventy-five (75) cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation of all taxable property within in such district; provided, however, that such district shall be approved at an election held for that purpose, and that only qualified, property taxpayers of the county shall vote therein; provided further, that such Hospital District shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care to needy inhabitants of the county, and thereafter such county and cities therein shall not levy any other tax for hospital purposes; and provided further, that should such Hospital District construct, maintain and support a hospital or hospital system, that the same shall never become a charge against the State of Texas, nor shall any direct appropriation ever be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of the said hospital or hospitals. Should the Legislature enact laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid because of their anticipatory character."

Each voter shall mark out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment, and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas."

Section 3. The Governor of this State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. 1614

The oldest bank in the Panhandle, the First National Bank of Amarillo, has faithfully served this area for over 60 years and has become one of the widely and favorably known financial institutions of the Southwest. They serve the public with a complete banking service and have a reputation for being a conservative and reliable institution. All deposits are guaranteed by the FDIC up to $10,000. Their capital and surplus is $2,400,000.

Since this bank's inception it has grown and developed as the area itself has prospered. By its adequate banking facilities it is playing an important part in the growth and development of the Panhandle.

Here you will find every banking facility, including farm and ranch loans, business and personal loans, home repair Title I loans, auto loans, Hopalong Cassidy savings clubs for children, savings accounts, safety deposit boxes, trust service and checking accounts.

They have been the mainstay for many ranchers, businesses and individuals as they are vitally interested in the progress of the agricultural and business life of our people.

All officers and directors are local citizens and are of faultless character and good judgment. Through their efforts and knowledge of banking, this institution has gained its prominent position as a leader in banking circles of the Southwest.

Llano Cemetery Is Beauty Spot Of Tri-State Area

One of the beauty spots of the Tri-State area is beautiful Llano Cemetery located at 2900 Hayes Street in Amarillo. A panorama of serene beauty greets the eye of visitors with velvet green lawns, gorgeous flowers, shrubbery, and majestic shade trees. And thanks to an ever-growing endowment fund, these gardens will remain as well cared for in the future as they are today.

Llano Cemetery Association is capably headed by Kenneth C. Miner, superintendent; Jerry Briscoe, president; H. J. Vandenburg, vice president; J. B. Latham, Mrs. E. W. Hardin, A. R. (Dick) Bivins, J. N. Perkins, C. E. Hogan and Mrs. Mary Fain, board members; and Mrs. Eva Lowe, secretary-treasurer.

Although Llano is one of the nation's most modern burial parks it offers the opportunity for any and every type of burial from the simple flat marker space to beautiful family burial estates, mausoleum or columbarium space.

Llano is truly democratic in its plans. Llano now has a Catholic section and they have completed the erection of a Calvary group and altar, funds for which were donated by various Catholic organizations and individuals of the area.

Llano Cemetery fills a long-felt want in the Tri-State area and constitutes one of the essential features of the complete organization of any community. Every effort is made to soften the sorrow of the bereaved and understanding and sympathy abound. Precautions too are taken to make it possible for families to make burials in harmony with religious beliefs of the deceased.

Mr. Miner is always glad to consult and advise with far-seeing residents of the area who wish to make arrangements for the future and final care of their loved ones. Mr. Miner is a man of wide experience with an intensely humanitarian background and understanding which materially aids him in the management of the Llano Cemetery Association and in service to the community.

Economic Conditions in November Will Determine Win or Loss GOP

WASHINGTON: The Administration is hopeful business conditions will be so improved by November that the Republican majorities in both houses will be maintained, if not enlarged, by John Q. Public. There is a keen appreciation of the fact that the economic trend is sure to affect the political trend.

Already the President's advisers are telling him the upturn is here. One of them recently expressed the opinion that the upturn started in May, and that the rest of 1954 would show increasingly satisfying results. No one is looking for a boom in the latter part of the year, or even in 1955, but the majority belief is that business will pick up, and remain good for several years.

If things are really turning out like the President's economic advisers say they are, the Republicans have reason to smile. Democrats, meanwhile, are watching the economic indicators to see if the pickup is real, or just a temporary shifting of sands.

If the actual bottom of the recession was reached in May, it probably arrived in time to save the Republicans from depression fear Democrats are sure to play on in the coming elections. Millions of voters still remember that the great depression came after ten years of Republican rule, and it is hard for them to ignore Democratic charges that Republican rule will mean economic hardship.

Acme Mattress and Spring Company Is Leader in Area

A foremost concern, which has many friends and customers throughout the Panhandle area, is the Acme Mattress and Spring Co., located at 212-A River Drive in Amarillo and headed by Nolan Vincent, owner.

This prominent organization features a complete service in the manufacturing and renovating of sanitary and comfortable mattresses that are conducive to restful sleep. They specialize in converting your old mattress into a beautiful, modern innerspring mattress.

Felting is also a specialty of the company. Their plant is completely equipped with modern machines for the production of quality mattresses and innersprings of all sizes.

The management of the Acme Mattress and Spring Company has done a remarkable job and have witnessed a gradual rise in the volume of their business. Many people who have been steady customers of this firm are high in their praise and recommend them to their friends.

This concern is vitally interested in the area and are always glad to send a representative to discuss any of their work. A post card addressed to them at Box 2422, Amarillo, will bring a member of the firm to your door without obligation. The representative will go into details of renovating your old mattress or manufacturing a new one to your individual specifications.

RE-ENLISTMENT BONUSES

Under the new armed services re-enlistment bonus law, recently passed by Congress and signed by President Eisenhower, an Air Force sergeant completing a four-year hitch will be $516 richer, and a private first class $372 for signing up for another four years. The old law offered $160 to each and was considered too low to keep good men from being drained off to civilian pursuits—especially in the higher grades where well-trained career men are a particular asset.

POLIO

The Public Health Service reported that 758 new cases of poliomyelitis were reported during the week ended July 10th — an increase of 34 per cent over the preceding week. This is about 20 per cent less than the corresponding week in 1953, however. The cumulative total for the year is 5,458 cases, compared with 5,621 for the corresponding period of last year.

There is guarded optimism in the White House—that the recessionary ship has touched bottom and is headed up again. If it has, Republican candidates will have removed the toughest obstacle they must overcome with the voter — the fear of financial loss. If the swing is already up, the turn probably came in time.

A crisis has suddenly developed in Europe, one which overshadows anything which has occurred in Asia during the seven years of fighting between France and Red China. The crisis concerns the key country in all Europe — West Germany.

The West Germans want their freedom, their sovereignty, which the U. S. and the U. K. promised them long ago. The French have been holding back, afraid that Germany would once again threaten her, as a free nation.

But now President Eisenhower is ready to go ahead, with or without the French. The reason: any further delay in granting full independence to West Germany will cause so much resentment it might endanger strong U. S. ties with that country.

In addition, the Communists have been telling the Germans—in both the East and West portions of the country, that East Germany enjoys a freedom equal to anything yet granted to West Germany. The United States is eager to give West Germany complete freedom, as a way of calling the Communist bluff.

Germany is now recognized as the key country in the anti-Communist lineup in western Europe. Yet German manpower is still not available to anti-Communist forces on the continent. This, according to the President, might wreck the chances of holding back Communist armies, should another war arise.

The President may call a special session of Congress, if necessary, to get Senate approval of a treaty granting Germany full sovereignty, this fall. If he does, the special session may come while politicians are in the middle of a rough campaign. But the White House takes the view that the issue is that important.

The question of keeping a strong Germany on the anti-Communist front is considered the number one problem in this country's foreign relations at the moment. Germany is not to be lost—as was territory in the Far East—to the Reds, if President Eisenhower can do anything about it, in time.

Mrs. Myrtle Gordy Killed Thursday in Car Wreck, Claude

Mrs. Myrtle C. Gordy, 60, died Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock when the new car she was driving went out of control five miles west of Claude and threw her to the pavement.

The right rear tire on the car had a blowout, swinging the car to the pavement shoulder where it overturned. Mrs. Gordy was thrown out of the car and the vehicle rolled over her.

Mrs. Gordy and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ray Cheyne of Amarillo, had driven a car dealer to his home in Clarendon and they were returning to Amarillo when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Gordy's husband died a few years ago. She has been teaching at Goodnight for 12 years where she was a member of the Baptist Church and a teacher in the Sunday School. She taught a Sunday School class while a resident of that community. She was formerly a resident of Canyon, and a graduate of West Texas State.

Survivors include three brothers, Ray Cheyne, Amarillo, W. D. ## Miss Morris To Be Nurse at College

Miss Maud Penn Morris, a registered nurse, will become director of the Student Health Service and instructor in health education at West Texas State College Sept. 1, according to President James P. Cornette. She succeeds Mrs. Maxine Brown, who is going to San Angelo High School as counselor.

A graduate of the Shannon Memorial School of Nursing in San Angelo and a member of the American Nurses Association, Miss Morris earned a B.S. degree in Nursing Education from Incarnate Word College in San Antonio. She had a post-graduate course in anesthesiology at the Ravenwood Hospital in Chicago.

Miss Morris comes to WT from the Samuel Merritt Hospital in Oakland, Calif., where she was assistant director of nurses. She was also in charge of an "in-service program" for registered nurses and nurses aides.

Following graduation, Miss Morris stayed at Shannon Memorial Hospital for five years as a supervisor and an instructor of nursing arts. She was for a time an anesthetist in the Province Hospital in Waco and at the Northern Permanente Hospital in Vancouver, Canada. She returned to Shannon Hospital in San Angelo in 1943 and until 1951 was a clinical instructor. Until she went to Oakland, Miss Morris was educational director at the Bataan Hospital in Albuquerque, N. M.

Wesleyan Guild Weekend Held

On July 24-25, the annual Wesleyan Service Guild Weekend was observed at Ceta Canyon. The Weekend has had a growing attendance each year it has been held, with a total of 169 this year, including six visitors. Forty-five Guilds were represented.

Three members of the local Guild, Mrs. Rae Maude Walters, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, and Mrs. E. J. Larson, attended both days. Velma Lynne Larson was a visitor. Mrs. K. E. Frieze, Mrs. Ed Gidden, and Mrs. Bob Boling attended the meeting on Sunday.

Miss Joyce Hill and Miss Helen Osborne on "The Gates Swing Wide," and Mrs. Carmen Davis, who discussed worship centers and suggestive decorations to be used by the chairman of spiritual life of the Guild.

Group singing was held; periods of meditation were included; early morning communion was administered to the group by Rev. Irvine; and the entire program under the direction of Miss Lucile Flowers, conference secretary of Plainview, was most inspirational and informative.

Decision was made to use the offering received at the meeting to purchase communion linens for use at the camp and to divide the remainder between Miss Joyce Hill and Miss Helen Osborne to be used in their work in Cuba and at the Wesley House in Amarillo.

YARBOROUGH:

Thanks, Friends; Predicts Victory

AUSTIN: Aug. 3 — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Ralph Yarbrough said this week he will win the Aug. 28 second primary by a sweeping margin.

Said Yarbrough, confidently: "678,000 Texans—a majority of Texans—can't be wrong."

"678,000 Texans have hammered home their belief that integrity in their government can be achieved only by a change."

"678,000 Texans have noted their distrust and disapproval of a third term for their governors."

Yarbrough thanked "each and every one of the brave Texans who voted for and with me" in the first primary. He said he was "especially and particularly grateful to the citizens of Randall County who have joined our common fight to restore decency and honor to Texas government."

Yarbrough said the campaign issues now are sharply drawn. He said: "Texans can now choose for or against a tradition — breaking third term, for or against straight-forward Democratic leadership and for or against integrity in their State Capitol."

The Democratic candidate repeated his thanks to "his friends of Randall County and urged their voting support — along with the votes of all other Texans — Aug. 28."

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Election Day

The fourth Saturday in July every two years is the main reason that Texas will never tolerate Communism in any degree, or any dictatorial government or force that denies the people the right to express their desires in a loud, clear voice at the polls.

The people just wouldn't stand for interference with election day, and especially election night, when the returns begin to pour in. I had thought that I would have to vote absentee, since Congress was still in session and several important matters were pending in the Senate that could come back to the House at any moment.

However, a filibuster started over there, which created the breathing spell I was looking for, and I immediately took off for the Panhandle. The House was still in session, and I knew that I would be shown with a few absentees, but the call of the Plains was too strong.

I wanted to be home on election day, and I was home. To the people of the Panhandle, I want to express my gratitude. I wish it were possible for me to come to each of you and do this personally. I shall always strive to merit the confidence and trust with which you have honored me. I only wish that I could have brought the family home with me, but the trip was a whirlwind one that gave me only three days at home. Those of you with families know that it takes that long to round up the kids to get started on a trip.

The Congress Is Now Protected
The House passed a bill yesterday on a voice vote that I voted against. It was a bill that created a Capitol Police Force and provided that a uniformed and armed member of that force would be in each of the galleries of the House.

The entire debate supporting the bill was centered around the Puerto Rican shooting of March 1, when several of the Members were hit. In other words, now that the horse is gone, we are attempting to close the barn door.

Certainly the March 1 tragedy should never have occurred, but it did. It was only by the grace of God that a number of us were not killed. If, in the future, the same type of fanatic should again appear in the gallery and follow the identical procedure followed by the Puerto Rican woman and her stooges, I daresay that the results would be just as bad, if not worse.

Probably the only difference would be that an armed officer would slay the assassins before they could get out of the gallery. This, of course, would not bring back to life any Member of Congress who had been slain by such a fusillade or some innocent bystander in the gallery who might be hit by the bullets of the fanatics or the armed officers.

None of us want to be shot at, but I do not think the American taxpayer should be saddled with a cost for a service that will not provide the result sought. The degree of fanaticism or mental instability that would prompt an assassin to fire upon the Senate or the House of Representatives is such that he would not be deterred by the presence of some uniformed and armed guard.

Our government is a civil government, and our Congress is supposed to be constituted of civilians elected by the people. I do not believe that the wearing of a uniform and the bearing of arms inside the House Chamber will be conducive to the best interests of this nation. I would much prefer to run the risk of being shot at than to see even the faintest shadow of a police state cast across the chambers of our legislative bodies, national, state, or local.

The Russian Approach

The Russian approach in the battle for the minds of men was vividly portrayed in a recent discussion concerning the Trust Territory of the United States. As I pointed out in a previous News-letter, this is a territory composed of a number of islands in the Pacific, scattered over an area larger than the United States. The land mass of this entire territory is equal to about half the state of Rhode Island.

It is on some of these islands that the atom and hydrogen bomb tests have been made. When the general report on the trusteeship of the United States in handling these islands was given to the United Nations, Russia, together with two other nations, raised quite a stew.

Instead of taking the facts as they were and could be proven, the Russian delegate mixed these with a lot of insinuations, innuendoes and half-truths and then strained from this mass all of the truth and the facts. What he finally came up with was the argument that the United States was destroying these islands and the peoples inhabiting them, one at a time, and was, therefore, undertaking to obliterate an entire people.

The ends to which these Reds will go to warp the minds and control the thoughts of men is utterly fantastic. Needless to say, the Russian approach did not prevail, and the Reds, as usual, were in the minority when the final vote was taken.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

This week is one that will be long remembered by many parents of young children in the community. The inoculation of youngsters with gamma globulin will relieve a lot of tension from worry on the part of parents. There are a few cases of polio in our midst already and many more youngsters have been exposed to polio. The inoculations were brought to the community through the Polio Foundation. Although the inoculations were free people were given a chance to contribute to the Foundation Fund. It was estimated that it cost the Polio Foundation approximately $11 per inoculation.

Everywhere business and civic minded men meet the topic for discussion is progress for the town. The best way to keep the progress is to keep up with the times. Our Chamber of Commerce is trying to do this but it needs the support of more business people. The thing that is needed more than anything else is for more people to take part in the meetings being held and the public civic program. The way to progress is people working together. A few people cannot do the work of an entire community or town.

Some information about show business came our way Saturday when we got into a discussion with Charles Donnell. If you think you're having trouble picking a good show to go and see, you should try booking some shows for a change. Show business has been pretty well torn up during the past few years between such developments as 3-D, CinemaScope, and other modern developments. Because of this it seems that the various movie studios have concentrated more on improving the technique of showing rather than making pictures. This has resulted in fewer pictures but for the most part better pictures. So, if you don't find a picture in Canyon to your liking remember, it's not W. J. Wooten's nor Charles Donnell's fault. They simply can't get the pictures to show.

New houses are going up about town and with them some comical events. It wouldn't be fair to mention any names in this little story but by the same token it wouldn't be fair not to pass it on to you. A person was looking over the new house of another person and thinking the room was for the bath said, "Where's the bathroom plumbing?" The owner of the house came back with the tart report, "This is a bedroom." Sounded like one of the scenes from "The Long, Long Trailer," didn't it?

Coach Guy T. Harrison was in Saturday and left the trophy which is to be given the winning team of boys softball this summer. If you haven't seen the trophy already, make it a point to try to do so soon.

Speaking of Coach Harrison brings to mind that he will soon begin work for football. In a little more than a month now school will be starting and all the colorful glory of football will return. Although other sports come in for a certain amount of fame and attention, it seems that football is the most colorful. In football you have all the color and excitement of other sports and in addition you have the band. A band is as much a part of football as the players themselves. If you don't believe it think back to some football game you saw that had no band. You probably remember it as a dull, flat affair.

In case you haven't heard, it takes more than a water pistol to cool off heated tempers.

Don't get too aroused over elections. We'll all end up with the same officials and the country has probably withstood worse in the past anyhow.

One of the tax experts in Washington said, "It seems that the more people make the more they want to take home." Perhaps those guys collecting our money think we should be glad to turn a raise in pay over to the government even though the cost of living goes up every time there's a union wage increase. It all goes to show you how easy it is to be free with other peoples' money.

Those who have used their services express satisfaction with the work, reasonable charges and open-and-above-board business policies.

15-Years Traffic Motor Vehicle Accidents Listed

A motor vehicle traffic report has just been released by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety. The report dates back to 1939, the year the department was founded.

In the report, a total of 50 accidents are listed in which six or more people were killed. Randall County was the scene of one of these accidents. Of the 50 accidents listed a total of 395 people were killed. The Randall County accident occurred March 25, 1949, only a few miles north of Canyon.

Randall County accident was the one in which Miss Dorinda Bond and her mother, Icy Bond, were killed along with two Amarillo High School journalism students, Bob Lacy and Carolyn Kelley. The head-on collision took the lives of two in the other car, Earl James Bolton and R. T. Chandler. The worst vehicle accident listed by Col. Garrison was a truck-train crash March 15, 1940, at Alamo in Hidalgo County in which 29 farm workers were killed.

Other tragic and deadly accidents include the collision of two Greyhound buses a short distance south of Waco, August 4, 1952, which killed 28; two trucks in Ellis County, August 5, 1947, which killed 19 people; the two car collision in Parker County, February 7, 1953, which killed nine persons.

Garrison pointed out that there had been one year since the DPS statistical division started compiling records in 1939 that a multiple-fatality traffic accident failed to claim at least six lives. This year was 1944. Thus far in 1954 only one such accident mars the record. That was the May 28th three-car mishap on U. S. Highway 90 in Gonzales County in which six persons were killed.

British and Uncle Sam in Race To Build Largest Jet Liners

By STANLEY JAMES
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON: A United States and a British aircraft company are engaged in a close race to get the first jet transport capable of hopping the Atlantic non-stop into operation.

Only a couple of weeks ago the U. S. company (Boeing) flew its first test model of a 95 ton giant which will probably become the first U. S.-built all-jet commercial airliner.

The big plane is powered by four jet engines said to turn out about 10,000 pounds of thrust each. Its speed is estimated to be in the 500-mile an-hour class. Its range is great.

Within a week, the De Havilland Aircraft Company in Great Britain successfully flew the first prototype of the Comet III, which De Havilland claims to be the first jet airliner with the capacity to hop the Atlantic.

The Comet III is also powered with four jet engines, reportedly producing 10,000 pounds of thrust also. Its speed is expected to be as great or greater than that of the Boeing jet. De Havilland is still holding grounded its Comet I aircraft, which operated two years before several accidents caused their grounding.

The Comet I carried 36 passengers, but the Comet III will have room for as many as 76, and should be able to fly from New York to London in roughly five hours, non-stop. Whether its heavier American-built competitor will be able to match that performance is not now known.

De Havilland says it will be about two years before the Comet III's go into operation. During that time, several U. S. companies, including Boeing, will be going forward with plans of their own. While Boeing is building its big jets primarily for the military, the thought of commercial models is also being given attention and an effort is being made to catch up with the British in this field.

This is the famous "top-hat" cheese souffle that originated about 25 years ago in the test kitchens of the Kraft Cheese Company.

Two tablespoons margarine or butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 3/4 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne, 1/2 pound pasteurized process cheese, sliced; 4 eggs, separated.

Make a sauce with the margarine or butter, flour, milk and seasonings. When thickened and smooth, add the sliced cheese, and stir until the cheese is melted. Remove from the heat and add the beaten yolks of the eggs; mix well. Slightly cool the mixture, then pour it slowly onto the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, cutting and folding the mixture thoroughly together. Pour into an ungreased 1 1/2 quart casserole. Run the top of a teaspoon around in the mixture one inch from the edge of the casserole, making a slight track or depression. This forms the top hat on the souffle as it bakes and puffs up. Bake one hour in a very slow oven, 275 degrees, and serve at once.

Double Ring Chapel Service Read For McKinney - Duncan Wedding Friday

MRS. JAMES M. DUNCAN

On Friday evening, July 30, at 8 o'clock, Ferel Lynn McKinney became the bride of James M. Duncan in a double ring service read by Ray Beeson, minister of Central Church of Christ, in Joseph A. Hill Chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McKinney and the groom is the son of Mrs. Edna Duncan.

White gladioli flanked by seven-branched candelabra bearing white tapers decorated the altar that was set before a background of jade palms. Floor baskets of white gladioli completed the setting.

Miss Laura Smith, organist, played "Indian Love Call," "O, Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly" as a musical prelude and accompanied Mrs. Dale Chapman of Altus, Okla., cousin of the groom, who sang "Because" and "Through the Years." Traditional marches were played for the processional and recessional.

Ann McKinney, matron-of-honor, and her sister's only attendant, wore a dress of blue net over taffeta styled with a strapless fitted bodice worn with matching cape. The net which covered the bodice and cape was appliqued with white lace. To complete her costume she wore a net covered taffeta headdress sprinkled with forget-me-nots and matching net and taffeta mitts. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pink asters.

Sharon Duncan, sister of the groom, lighted the candles. She wore a dress of yellow eyelet-embroidered organza over taffeta with headdress of yellow net.

As flower girl, Gail McKinney, sister of the bride, wore a pink eyelet-embroidered organza frock over taffeta, styled similarly to that of the maid-of-honor. Her headdress of pink net matched the small net covered basket from which she scattered rose petals.

Joel Peterson was best man. Leon Crouch, Gene Mickey, and Don Duncan, brother of the groom, served as ushers.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a gown of lace and net over taffeta. Scalloped lace edging dotted with seed pearls outlined the oval neck and cap sleeves of the lace covered fitted bodice. The full gathered ballerina-length skirt was of white net over taffeta. Scalloped lace edging finished the

She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias showered with stephanotis and satin streamers tied with loveknots. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. McKinney, mother of the bride, wore a beige lace dress with matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Duncan, the groom's mother, wore a navy dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

A reception for the bridal party and relatives of the bride and groom was held in the home of the bride's parents following the wedding.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cutwork cloth with crystal candelabra holding white tapers flanking the centerpiece arrangement of pink asters. Mrs. W. A. Miller, aunt of the bride, served the multi-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Bob Pittard of Bovina, sister of the groom, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Jane Duncan registered the guests. Other members of the house party were Mrs. John Tole of Tulsa and Mrs. Lawrence Cleveland of Canadian. All members of the house party wore white carnation corsages.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, the bride chose to travel in a charcoal grey linen suit with pink accessories and a gardenia corsage.

They will make their home in Amarillo where the groom is employed by the Santa Fe Railway Co.

The bride is a graduate of Canyon High School and attended West Texas State. The groom attended Abilene Christian College at Abilene and West Texas State College.

Out-of-town guests included Charles McBroom of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pittard and family of Bovina, Mrs. O. B. Saunders and Mrs. Dale Chapman, Mrs. W. H. Offard and Nancy, J. H. Etheridge, all of Altus, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McKeeran, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cooksey, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hensley, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Wallis, all of Amarillo; R. J. Candler and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Candler of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cleveland of Canadian, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Ellerd and Duain of Memphis, Mr. and Mrs. John Tole, Sharon, and Bryon, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. McCune of Tulsa.

Mrs. Edna Duncan, mother of the groom, entertained the bridal party with a rehearsal dinner at her home on Thursday, July 29. Flower arrangements of pink roses were featured throughout the entertaining rooms.

A delicious dinner was served buffet style to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Peterson, Mrs. Dale Chapman and Rusty, and Mrs. O. B. Saunders of Altus, Okla. Gene Mickey, Misses Laura Smith and Peggy Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McKinney, Ann and Gail, Sharon and Don Duncan, James Duncan and Lynn McKinney, and the hostess.

On Saturday evening, July 10, Miss McKinney and James Duncan were the honored guests at a kitchen shower given in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts.

From the barbecue house in the beautiful backyard, delicious refreshments were served.

Host and hostesses with Dr. and Mrs. Roberts were Mr. and Mrs. Joel Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mulligan, Miss Rachel Maynard, Hollis Maynard, Don Stone, and Gene Mickey.

Approximately 40 young people enjoyed an evening of games.

The home of Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson was the scene for the bridal shower given Miss Lynn McKinney on Friday afternoon, July 16, from 3 until 5 o'clock.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Tomlinson, Miss McKinney, Mrs. T. F. McKinney, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Edna Duncan, mother of the groom, to greet the guests upon their arrival.

The serving table was beautifully appointed with crystal and centered with an unusual arrangement of pink carnations and pink asters holding an open fan. Crystal candelabra holding white candles flanked the center arrangement. Mrs. W. A. Miller, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. J. B. Roberts presided at the punch bowl.

Miss Sarah Colwell and Mrs. Bill Morton registered the guests. Misses Nancy Kay Tomlinson, Diane Prichard, Frances Cunningham and Betty Glanton furnished piano background music.

Assisting Mrs. Tomlinson as co-hostess were Mesdames Herschel Jennings, Ed Bourn, S. R. Hood, Cecil Simms, W. F. Haggard, J. A. Young, Wesley Cox, J. E. Miller and J. R. Devin.

Approximately 100 guests called or sent gifts.

Heat Cramps May Follow Thermometer

AUSTIN: There is little doubt that summer is here. If you don't think so, take a quick look at your thermometer or feel your shirt or blouse—chances are that it will be wet and salty with sweat.

Excessive sweating means the loss of body salt, and Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, advises the use of salt in drinking water as a means of avoiding heat cramps.

"Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat," says Dr. Holle. "On days when the thermometer goes to 90 degrees or above, as it has recently, the body may lose as much as 50 grams of salt. Laborers, farmers, and even white-collar workers should be especially watchful of heat cramps."

Heat cramps are characterized by pains in the stomach, headaches, and sometimes nausea and vomiting. The danger comes because the loss of the salt may occur without the knowledge of the individual until the deficiency causes cramps or heat fag.

Salt tablets may be purchased commercially. If they are not available, a pinch of table salt will serve the same purpose. "Since milk contains more salt than water, drinking milk is an excellent method of replacing body salt lost through perspiration," Dr. Holle says.

a personal shower Friday afternoon, July 23, in the Floyd Bonds' home.

Punch and cake were served from the beautifully decorated table to the 20 guests.

Hostesses were Misses Peggy Bonds, Sarah Colwell, Elaine Cundiff, Laura Smith, and Frances Cunningham, and Mesdames Marvin Axe, Ray Burrus, and Robert McClendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cunningham of Dumas are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bolton.

Mrs. J. B. Seale, Sr., of Lockney left Tuesday after having visited with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Seale and Jeff Jeff accompanied his grandmother home for a short visit.

Canyon, Texas
Gentlemen:

I present for publication the attached report of the receipts and disbursements of the Randall County Treasurer, for the period of January 1, 1954, to June 30, 1954. This report is taken from a longer and more detailed report submitted to Judge Henry S. Bishop, and the Randall County Commissioners Court for the same period. This report is based upon a regular and continuous audit of the financial books and records of the fee officers and the county treasurer, and it is my opinion that the report reflects the receipts and disbursements, their distribution to the accounts, and the cash balances in a fair manner.

Shivers Thanks
Voters For Support July 24

AUSTIN: Expressing gratitude for the support that gave him a near-majority vote in the July primary, Governor Allan Shivers opened a runoff campaign for re-election this week, confident of victory.

"There is no question that we can and will win," the Governor said, as he announced plans for an around-the-clock battle.

"I'm going to wage an all-out campaign personally," he said, "and my friends over the state promise they will do the same. I will continue to discuss the issues and there will be no mud-slinging."

The Governor made his first statewide radio broadcast since the election on Tuesday night. He discussed the drought, emergency relief steps which are being taken to relieve drought conditions, and water and soil conservation.

Discussing the runoff campaign earlier in the week, the Governor said, "All we need to do is to get out our vote to win. It just takes work and there is no substitute for it, in a campaign or in anything else."

The Governor indicated his efforts for re-election in the August primary would utilize such standard campaign devices as personal speeches, solicitations and contacts, including the ever-popular stump speaking as well as newspaper advertising, radio and television.

Analyzing the balloting in the first primary, the Governor said the returns proved his charge that his opponent was a "captive candidate of the CIO and NAACP." Ralph Yarborough carried every large CIO box, Shivers said, and every Negro precinct by ten twenty to one.

"But I carried his home box three to one," the Governor pointed out.

Shivers appraised the basic issue of the runoff thusly: "The people have a choice of two types of government — one of strife and discord, not only among the people of Texas but in the Legislature and state government, or one of cooperation such as I have had, working for all segments of Texas.

"At stake is whether the people want to attract more industry for more jobs or double the tax rate; whether to continue a middle-of-the-road policy as I have, or have one in office who will turn the Texas government over to specialized segments of the population, particularly the CIO and negro groups."

As for his stand on segregation, the Governor reiterated he wanted schools for Negroes just as good as the best for white students. "Texas has spent more money on negro schools during my administration than in any comparable period, but Texans are not ready to abolish segregation in public schools, and so long as I am Governor, Texas is not going to abolish segregation in its public schools."

Ralph Needham, who is in Civil Service at Seattle, Wash., and Loyd Needham, in the Navy being transferred from San Diego to Washington, D. C., spent 30 day leaves visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thompson. A reunion was held at the Thompson home with 60 relatives of the boys attending.

Visitors in the Wilburn Davis home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Van Sant and family of Denver, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Davis and Lonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Davis and Cameron, Mrs. Grace Price of Amarillo, Louie Davis and Dwight and D. E. Davis of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brasuel and children of Cuba, N. M., were week-end guests in the home of his mother, Mrs. Hattie Brasuel. They were returning from a two weeks vacation in Dallas, Raymondville, and Port Aransas.

Mrs. Glenn Adams and children of Wichita, Kans., are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hand.

Buy, Build, Live in Canyon!

One sultry night not long ago we joined some 80 others at an old-fashioned church supper. As we watched the people assemble, we noted more than one cheerful looking housewife bearing her "covered dish" who had a damp spot between her shoulders — either from last minute cooking or a too-hasty shower. Most of the business men looked haggard. At 7 o'clock the thermometer was still crowding 100 and, like most of the other adults present, we wondered if it wouldn't have been more sensible if everyone had stayed at home.

Presently we lined up and filed past the serving tables, to fill our plates with fried chicken, vegetables, salad and dessert. And as the meal ended, a group of high school boys and girls made ready for the program.

The stage curtains parted on an utterly ridiculous version of Shakespeare's Othello: The lines were changed in jingles. The costumes didn't even remotely resemble proper Shakespearean dress. The off-hand performance was of the type we kids used to amuse ourselves with on Sunday afternoons when all the cousins gathered at our house. It was wonderfully refreshing.

Sitting near the stage, we glanced back at the audience. Everyone there was smiling. Eyes were brighter, the look of dutiful patience had disappeared. We were having a good time with those young folks!

"Best Shakespeare I ever saw," one man chuckled as we left the tables.

Well, that's one bunch that's doing something to prevent juvenile delinquency, we thought later. Most youthful "devilment" comes from wanting a chance to "shine," to make a little mischief. Given a chance, most youngsters had rather it would be wholesome than destructive. The church — or the community — that helps them with the "angles" is performing a real service.

Mrs. Gladys Haines left by plane Sunday for Chicago to visit her daughter, Vergie, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McGee of Borger were overnight guests with their mother, Mrs. Hattie Brasuel.

Two Texas Women Exchange Blows In Capital Over School Legislation

By HARRY DENT
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON: Two ladies from Texas squared off in a miffy tiff in the national capital the other day in what is an interesting news story. The Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, and the new president of the National Education Association, Miss Waurine Walker, were the contestants.

It seems that the new president of the NEA came to Washington to confer with her fellow Texan and fellow female on the subject of emergency aid for the schools. There were two bills in Congress which Miss Walker wanted Mrs. Hobby to get the President to support.

On a Monday morning Miss Walker held a press conference. Among other things, she said: "I believe that strong Administration support for the Cooper and Frelinghuysen bills will move us off dead center in a situation about which there has been much talk but not much action."

Also: "In a few days I shall be in Oslo, Norway . . . I hope to be able to tell them that President Eisenhower has recognized the importance of keeping our public schools strong by asking Congress to pass emergency legislation providing federal aid for school construction."

A few hours after making those statements, Miss Walker was due to have a conference with Mrs. Hobby. When she reached the office, she was told that Mrs. Hobby had been called to the Capitol. And that was the rather abrupt end of that! Miss Walker didn't ask for another appointment.

It seems Mrs. Hobby might have generated a slow burn about Miss Walker's remarks about talk and action, and about the reference to the President, which could be taken as an inference that the Chief Executive did not already recognize the importance of keeping our public schools strong.

True or not, the girls were fairly browned off. Now girls! What is a few words between girls, anyhow?

Save Your Life By Observing Traffic Signs

"Know your signs of life — and stay alive!"

Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, president of the Texas Safety Association, gave this advice today to the people of Texas in referring to the "Signs of Life" traffic safety program which his group is conducting this month in cooperation with the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"Signs of life are the traffic signs, signals and pavement markings which remind motorists and pedestrians of the law and warn them of potential dangers on the road ahead," he said.

"The name 'signs of life' is appropriate," he explained, "because countless lives would be saved if all drivers and walkers learned to recognize these signs and tried to follow their directions with courtesy."

"Special emphasis in the August program is being placed on publicizing the five basic sign shapes," Col. Tilley said.

"If drivers would learn these five shapes," he said, "they would know immediately what to expect when they saw one of these signs, for each shape carries a distinctive type of message."

He listed the basic sign shapes as follows:

1. EIGHT - SIDED, yellow and black or red and white. This sign means STOP — one message, one requirement — never anything else.

2. DIAMOND, also yellow and black. This sign indicates danger ahead, carries such messages as School, Narrow Bridge, Men Working, or the directional symbols describing curves, intersections, side roads, etc. They mean: slow down, stay alert.

3. RECTANGULAR, white with black or colored lettering. These tell of speed limits, mark no passing zones, give other regulatory information such as parking rules. Obey their messages.

4. ROUND, yellow and black signs warn of a highway-railroad intersection 300 to 500 feet ahead. These signs call for reduced speed and extra caution, so the driver can make sure no train is coming before he drives across the tracks.

5. RAILROAD CROSSBUCK marks the intersection of highway and railway. Cross only when the way is clear.

"These five sign shapes actually can save lives if they are recognized and obeyed," Col. Tilley said, as he called attention to the slogan, "Know Your Signs of Life," which is being featured this month by the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

In a certain small Southern town an aged Negro woman radiates happiness and good cheer among her neighbors.

One day a woman for whom she was undertaking a household task inquired, "Auntie, why are you always so cheerful?"

"Goodness, chile," was the laughing reply, "ah jes weahs de world lake a loose gyarment!"

WHAT PRICE FAME?

For years a certain man had been absent from his old home town. When he returned for a visit, the first four people he met didn't know him, and the next three didn't know he had been away.

CHEAP!

Visitor: "You say that public building over there cost $2,000,000? Doesn't that seem like a terrible price for such a building?"

Citizen: "Why man, if you knew the gang that got the contract you'd think we're getting off cheap."

Adlai Stevenson May Talk For Ralph Yarborough

A move has been started in Austin to induce former Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, and banner carrier for the Democratic party in 1952, to come to Texas to campaign for Ralph Yarborough.

It was reported from Austin that the campaign slogan of the Yarborough forces would be "Liberate Texas."

The Shivers forces quickly replied: "Liberate Texas from whom?"

The Shivers forces pointed out that all labor boxes in Texas were carried by CIO for Yarborough. Yarborough received 90% of the Negro vote of Texas.

Yarborough cried to high heaven to save Texas, but at the same time was promising to spend millions of dollars more in tax money.

"The Yarborough promises were made to induce Texans to vote their prejudices and not their solemn honest purpose of saving Texas from financial ruin under the leadership of an amateur politician who wanted the Governor to get out of the way so he would have clear sailing into the Governor's mansion," stated a Shivers' headquarters spokesman.

The Governor laid the blame of his failure to secure a clear majority upon the over-confidence of the voters. As an example he pointed to Harris county alone, where Yarborough received 2,000 votes more than he received in 1952; but Shivers received 25,000 votes less than he received in 1952.

Go to the polls and express your opinion on August 28!

PUTTING ON THE DOG

"Annie Mae," said the mistress of the house, finally giving way to curiosity. "I notice you have been taking our empty grapefruit hulls home. What do you do with them?"

The negro maid looked up at her mistress with a sheepish grin. "Yes'm," she admitted. "I've been carrying 'em home. I've think they make my garbage look so stylish."

FAITHFUL DUCK

Oklahoma City — Deciding their pet duck was too old to bake and too much trouble to keep, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Crim put him in a sack and drove to a park—two miles away and let him out at the lake. The next day the duck was strutting around as usual in the Crim's front yard, so they decided to keep him.

Bill Rutherford of the Moore County News Explains Shivers Vote

Bill Rutherford, publisher of the Moore County News, was a staunch supporter of Adlai Stevenson in 1952. He voted for Allan Shivers on July 24 and explained his actions in last week's issue of his paper as follows:

TRYING TO THINK STRAIGHT

The difference in our thinking and that of hundreds of our friends who voted for Judge Yarborough for Governor, lies in our conception of the issues involved in the race.

With us the real issue seems to be the kind of government Texas can expect to get for the next two years, based on the election of one or the other of the candidates.

With many of our friends, it's a straight test between those who voted for Stevenson and those who voted for Eisenhower in 1952.

This just cannot be made to fit in our thinking. If we believed this, we would be trying to push Judge Yarborough over the top just as hard as his friends are trying to do.

But when you check the measurement it falls shy. If Judge Yarborough's chief qualification lies in the fact that he voted for Stevenson, hundreds of us who did the same are just as entitled to be Governor as he.

Also, if our Yarborough friends are going to lay down the line of strict party line performance, how do they reconcile their voting for Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey and Attorney General Ben Shepperd who in 1952, allowed their names to appear on a Republican ticket as candidates for office? Neither man could have piled up the total he did Saturday without receiving thousands of Yarborough votes.

We voted for Shepperd for we think he has made a great Attorney General, but the party line adherence now demanded by Judge Yarborough in the Governor's race could not have justified either our or his vote for John Ben.

We remember three of our top civic clubs going together to pay the cost of the Tidelands campaign and calling upon our state and national officials to get them back. Well, they are back, with their $32,000,000 annual contribution to Texas school funds.

Now, who hit the Democratic Party the hardest blow in the 1952 campaign, Allan Shivers and Texas without whom Eisenhower would have won anyway, or Harry S. Truman who vetoed a majority action of Congress that would have returned state lands to their rightful owners, thereby sending a chill of fear not only through Texas, but through Louisiana, California and every other coast line state in the Union?

We who voted for Adlai Stevenson, refused to condemn him for Truman's errors, yet many of us are now willing to murder Allan Shivers for opposing them. Few of us doubt that Mr. Truman was the big reason for party defeat in 1952, yet we believe campaign speeches that now charge all of that responsibility to Allan Shivers who all of Texas commissioned to oppose Mr. Truman's action favoring confiscation of the lands of Texas and thereby sealing the defeat of our party in 1952.

We would have preferred attempting to get the Tidelands back through the Democratic Party process of trying to override the Truman veto in the January, 1953, Lame Duck session of the Congress but we were not chief executive of a state that had said in a loud voice: "Get them back," thereby being forced to follow as Shivers was, what his judgment taught him was the only way to get them back.

We think that was the toughest decision ever forced on a governor and while we may yet differ with him, we do yield to him his right to act according to his best judgment and conscience and we revolt at charging him with being a traitor to his party while letting the man who made the veto decision remain a paternal saint within the same party.

We supported Al Smith in 1928 when religious intolerance sent Texas into the arms of that great Republican statesman, Herbert Hoover; Roosevelt (three times); Truman, when it seemed impossible to re-elect him; Adlai Stevenson, because we believed him a statesman and not a Truman yes man.

We supported such staunch Democratic Party liberals as Gene Worley, Marvin Jones and Altavene Clark and we yield to no one in our loyalty to the vital principles of our party, but we decline to believe that we strain that loyalty, by voting for one of two candidates in a Democratic Party Primary, whom we believe offers the best hope of good government for Texas for the next two years.

IDENTIFIED

A kindly old soul asked the seven children of an acquaintance to luncheon. The youngsters ranged from three years to 14. As they streamed up, the old lady's brain reeled and their Christian names failed her.

"And which one are you, dear?" she asked a solemn boy of seven. "Me?" he said, importantly. "I'm the one with the spectacles."

JOBLESS PAY

Unemployment among workers insured for unemployment compensation dropped 96,200 during the week ended July 3rd to 1,777,100, the lowest level since the 1953 Christmas week, according to the Labor Department. Initial claims of jobless workers for benefits rose by 29,200 to 344,100 during the week ended July 10. This was thought mainly due to temporary layoffs during plant shutdowns for vacations, inventories, and model changes.

RED PLANES

General Earle E. Partridge, Far East Air Force commander, estimates that Russia, China and North Korea have 7,500 combat-ready planes in the Far East—1,000 planes higher than the top previous figure. United States air strength totals about 2,400 bombers, fighters, reconnaissance and transport planes, the General said.

THE COUNTRY GUIDE

Lost Time

The schedule of the Senate was thrown off balance by the prolonged discussion of the Revised Atomic Energy Bill. As I write this, it is not clear just when adjournment of this session of Congress will come.

I wholeheartedly approve of the principle of full discussion of any proposed legislation. I have been disturbed by the fact that the extended debate on the Atomic Energy Bill, accompanied by day-and-night sessions of the Senate, delayed our taking up measures of great importance — such as farm legislation, social security, foreign aid, and others.

It is to be hoped that a final rush for adjournment will not result in these serious questions being given inadequate consideration.

Smaller Deficit

The Federal Government operated at a deficit during the 1954 fiscal year, which ended June 30, but the deficit was smaller than it has been during recent years. Expenditures outran receipts during the 12 months by $3,029,000,000. The deficit for the preceding year amounted to $9,900,000,000.

Actual expenditures were cut $6,500,000,000 under the level of the 1953 fiscal year.

Tax cuts approved during the present session of Congress are estimated to total approximately $7,500,000,000.

Defense Expenditures

Proper economy in the conduct of the Government is greatly to be desired, of course. But some observers feel that the Administration has cut too deeply into expenditures for defense.

Outlays for national security programs mounted to $46,200,000,000 last year. That was a reduction of two and one-half billion dollars.

According to a statement from the White House, this cut reflects greater economies in operations, re-examination of military plans, reduced stock levels, less Atomic Energy Commission spending, and delay in the delivery of materials for stockpiling. Only history can show whether the reduced military expenditures in this period of continuous world turmoil were justified. Certainly it is of the greatest importance that we remain strong. In the military and economic strength of the United States lies the only hope of maintaining freedom in the world.

We Must Be Ready

A horrifying example of the perils we face in these times was given by the action of the Chinese communists in firing on American aircraft engaged in searching for possible survivors of the Cathay Pacific Airliner shot down by the communists.

We seem continually poised on the brink of disaster.

When the first announcement came of the attack on our aircraft, I made a brief statement in the Senate, pointing out that this is a time above all times for Americans to unite.

"The Chinese communists are shooting at our men," I pointed out. "There can be no partisanship or divided loyalties on such an issue."

"We must await the facts to determine the next step. But meanwhile, we must also resolve to be cool, decisive and ready to act as Americans must always act in the face of danger."

I feel confident that those are the sentiments of the people of Texas.

Texas Drouth

Reports of drouth conditions in many Texas counties continue to be disturbing. We were able to get the President to declare 23 counties as a drouth disaster area, making them eligible for some assistance in the matter of feed for cattle.

But the program at present authorized is inadequate to meet the serious situation that exists. Texas' able Agriculture Commissioner, John C. White, is giving his best efforts to this whole matter. I certainly shall be of any assistance I can.

Personal

I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not say how deeply I appreciate the confidence Texans showed in me on July 24. I want all of you to know that your faith in me will make me work harder than ever to give you, the people of Texas, the kind of representation you deserve to have in the United States Senate.

Lady Bird and I thank you. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
